Lathrop Gage Intellectual Property Attorneys Featured in Law360 Article on Antitrust Claims in iPod Fitness Products Matter

April 27, 2012

Lathrop Gage partners William Rudy (Intellectual Property - Kansas City), Curtis Vock (Intellectual Property - Boulder), David Clark (Intellectual Property - Kansas City), Travis McCallon (Intellectual Property - Kansas City) and John Shaeffer (Intellectual Property - Los Angeles) were featured in a Law360 article covering antitrust allegations against Nike Inc., Apple Inc., and others over Nike+ fitness monitoring products used with iPods and other items. Read more ...