

Tax Issues in Health Care

Lathrop GPM advises clients in the health care industry on tax issues including:

- Structuring physician compensation arrangements
- Structuring and documenting joint ventures involving tax-exempt entities, including hospitals, with for-profit entities
- Structuring physician recruitment arrangements in a manner not to jeopardize the payor-hospital's tax-exempt status
- Handling tax issues involved in medical group acquisitions and combinations