

Corporate & Business

Where some see business challenges, we see solutions.

As a corporate law firm, we're in business to help your business succeed, and our expertise is your advantage.

From startup ventures and middle market companies to global, Fortune 100 companies, businesses turn to the corporate attorneys at Lathrop GPM for their legal needs.

Our clients across rely on the steady counsel of our attorneys for the breadth of their needs, be it the day-to-day matters or highly-complex challenges requiring sophisticated legal counsel and sound business judgment. We are passionate about helping clients find the right legal solutions for all their business needs.

Business clients benefit from our extensive experience and client-centric approach.

When it comes to serving business clients, our experience is virtually unmatched. We are experts in the practices of business formations and governance; mergers and acquisitions; corporate finance, tax, and securities.

Lathrop GPM's transactions team has been recognized by Chambers USA and includes individuals named among The Best Lawyers in America. In a recent Chambers survey, clients described Lathrop GPM's corporate attorneys as "savvy and respectful," "efficient and amiable," and possessing "unflappable character." We take considerable pride in these remarks and in the firm's recognition among the top client service firms in the country.