Brian C. Fries

Partner | brian.fries@lathrogpm.com

Brian Fries focuses his practice on class actions and complex litigation, and he leads the firm's Class Action group. He has extensive trial practice, arbitration, and mediation experience in a variety of litigation matters throughout the United States.

His experience includes disputes arising from general business transactions, class actions, accounting and other professional negligence claims, healthcare litigation, real estate transactions, business ownership disputes, banking related claims, and a variety of tort, breach of contract and fraud claims.

Brian knows there is no one-size-fits-all approach to litigation, and he excels at working with clients to achieve their goals.

Brian also provides general outside legal counsel and advice to privately owned businesses.
