Firm Event

Gray Plant Mooty - Minneapolis

The legal environment for technology companies changes constantly. The advice of an experienced and knowledgeable legal team is crucial to the success of your technology venture. The attorneys at Gray Plant Mooty advise a wide variety of technology companies, from pure start-ups to established multinationals.

Join our tech attorneys for the second of a series of quarterly meetings exploring the challenges and opportunities faced by tech companies today. You'll be provided with an opportunity to pose questions to our experienced team, followed by a happy hour with beer samples from local breweries.

Presentations featured at this session include:

- Crowdfunding: It's Finally Here! An overview of all forms of crowdfunding and how your company can soon raise capital from anybody
- Real Deal Terms An analysis of the results from the recent GPM Seed/Angel Capital Survey
- Data Privacy and Security Top Five Security technology, cloud computing, internal privacy policies and practices, cyber-liability insurance and vendor agreement clauses
