

The Journal of the Kansas Bar Association: Navigating Change in Climate Change Regulation

April 24, 2017

Partner Bob Lambrechts authored an article on existing regulatory requirements addressing climate change and how that landscape will likely morph under a Trump presidency, as well as the potential impact of climate change regulation upon the state of Kansas. Read the full article here.