

Aaron Crandall Joins GPM's Corporate & Business Practice Group

August 24, 2016

MINNEAPOLIS (August 24, 2016) — The law firm of Gray Plant Mooty is pleased to announce that attorney Aaron Crandall has joined the firm's Corporate & Business Practice Group, practicing in the firm's St. Cloud office.

Crandall's practice focuses on providing general counsel services to private and family owned companies, and advising business clients on corporate governance, mergers and acquisitions, technology, privacy, and intellectual property. He represents clients across a range of industries, including medical, dental, and professional practices; private equity and venture capital; manufacturing; printing; information technology; online and Internet-based companies; and privacy compliance.

Before joining Gray Plant Mooty, Crandall practiced at Stinson Leonard Street. In addition, he has taught introductory legal courses as an adjunct professor at St. Cloud State University and has lectured for Minnesota CLE on Choice of Entity.
