

Lathrop Gage Welcomes Lauren Wacker to its Litigation Practice

September 9, 2015

ST. LOUIS (Sept. 9, 2015) – Lathrop Gage announced today that Lauren M. Wacker joined the firm as an Associate with its Business Litigation practice and will be based in the firm’s St. Louis office.

“Lauren brings a variety of litigation experience to the firm,” said Scott Malin, Partner in charge of the St. Louis office. “She is a great addition, and will be a strong individual contributor and vital team member for this office as well as our nationally recognized litigation practice.”

Prior to joining the firm, Wacker was a Litigation Associate with Carmody MacDonald, where she engaged in all aspects of litigation from pre-trial investigation through trial and appeal.

She is a member of the Missouri Bar Association and the Bar Association of Metropolitan St. Louis. Wacker currently serves on the Loyola Academy Junior Board of Directors and is an active volunteer and supporter of Boys Hope Girls Hope St. Louis.

Wacker obtained a juris doctor, cum laude, from Saint Louis University School of Law, where she served as editor of Saint Louis Public Law Review. She received a bachelor’s degree in history with minors in political science and justice systems, cum laude, from Truman State University located in Kirksville, Missouri.

About Lathrop Gage:

Lathrop Gage has 320 attorneys nationwide serving clients in the areas of litigation, intellectual property and business. Chambers USA ranks Lathrop Gage’s corporate, environmental, labor and employment, litigation and real estate practices among the best in their regions. For more information, visit www.lathropgpm.com.

lathropgage.com.