Kate Nolen

Of Counsel | knolen@lathropgage.com

Kate Nolen serves as Lathrop Gage's Pro Bono Coordinator, organizing and supporting the firm's commitment to pro bono and community service. She combines the passions and talents of the firm's attorneys with the vast pro bono opportunities available within Lathrop Gage's various office locations. Ms. Nolen also coordinates in-house training on a wide range of topics so that the firm's attorneys are fully educated and prepared to handle all of their pro bono matters.

Ms. Nolen also handles some of the firm's juvenile appointments, representing both parents and children in family court.

Prior to joining Lathrop Gage, Ms. Nolen was the Director of Legal Services at Jackson County CASA, a non-profit organization that represents the best interests of children in the family court system. At CASA, Ms. Nolen managed the legal department and served as Guardian ad Litem on an array of family court cases. She also grew the volunteer attorney program through recruitment and training to increase the organization's capacity, making them able to serve more children.
