

Congratulations to AUM Cardiovascular, 2011 Minnesota Cup Grand Prize Winner

September 19, 2011

Gray Plant Mooty congratulates the 2011 Minnesota Cup grand prize winner, AUM Cardiovascular. The Minnesota Cup is a statewide business plan competition that seeks out Minnesota's newest and most innovative business ideas. The competition encourages entrepreneurs, inventors, and creative minds to submit their breakthrough business ideas. Gray Plant Mooty is proud to sponsor the Minnesota Cup, which shares our commitment to supporting the efforts of emerging businesses.

The 2011 Minnesota Cup received over 1,000 entries from around the state. The final review panel included members of the local entrepreneurial community, such as venture capitalists, angel investors, entrepreneurs, media, accountants, and attorneys including Gray Plant Mooty's Doug Ramler. The winner was announced on September 8, at an event honoring the six division winners at the University of Minnesota's McNamara Alumni Center.

The Entrepreneurial Services group at Gray Plant Mooty has extensive experience in nurturing innovative ideas and serving the unique legal and business needs of entrepreneurs, start-ups, and growing businesses. We're well suited to serve companies like those participating in the Minnesota Cup. We take pride in knowing our clients, their ideas, their objectives, and their needs. Gray Plant Mooty is pleased to be a special supporting sponsor of the High Tech Division.
