

Law360 Quotes Lisa Hansen on Changing Tax Policies

July 12, 2021

Lisa Hansen is quoted in the Law360 article "State And Local Tax Policy To Watch In The 2nd Half Of 2021." The article discusses state and local tax policy developments in 2021, including the tax implications of remote workers officing in states outside where their employer is based. "Hansen said both workers and employers now 'really have to think through that balance of letting workers work where they want or need to versus how you handle your nexus issues, income tax issues, withholding issues. These have huge tax implications.'"
