

BTI Ranks Gray Plant Mooty in the Top 25% of Law Firms with the Best Client Relationships

April 9, 2014

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (April 9, 2014) — The Minneapolis-based law firm of Gray Plant Mooty is pleased to share that it has been ranked in the top 25% of law firms with the best client relationships in the 2014 BTI Power Rankings: The BTI Client Relationship Scorecard. In this publication, corporate counsel gauge the strength of their current relationships with law firms to provide the measure of a law firm's breadth and strength of client relationships.

The BTI rankings are based on interviews with more than 500 corporate counsel at Fortune 1000 and large companies who shared insights on legal spending, key issues they are facing, and their relationships with law firms. These interviews were quantified and analyzed to determine precisely which law firms have the strongest and most plentiful client relationships. Two criteria rose to the top as the key to the best client relationships: a strong, well-established relationship as a primary law firm, and vibrant, enthusiastic client recommendations.

This is one of many recent honors Gray Plant Mooty has received from BTI's legal rankings and guides. In February, attorneys John Brower and Michael Gray were named to the 2014 BTI Client Service All-Star Team, an elite group of standout attorneys known for providing the absolute best client service. In November, the firm was named to the 2014 BTI Client Service A-Team, and in October was named to the 2014 BTI Honor Roll of Most Feared Litigation Firms.
