Lathrop Gage Announces Three New Associates

September 9, 2009

Kansas City, Mo. – Joel Voran, CEO of Lathrop Gage LLP announced today that Pam Dixon, Luke Meriwether and Dameon Rivers have joined the firm as associates.

Dixon works in the St. Louis office, concentrating her practice in the business litigation department and in the labor & employment practice group. She received her undergraduate degree from Texas A&M in 2005 and her juris doctorate from Washington University School of Law in St. Louis in 2009. In 2007 she served as a Judicial Intern for the Hon. Mary Ann Medler of the U.S. District Court's Eastern District of Missouri.

Meriwether works in the Kansas City, Mo., office concentrating his practice in intellectual property. He received his undergraduate and J.D. degrees from the University of Tulsa. He served a judicial internship for the Hon. Ortrie D. Smith in the U.S. District for the Western District of Missouri in 2005.

Rivers focuses his practice on real estate, and is located in the Kansas City office. He received his J.D. from the University of Missouri - Kansas City, and his undergraduate degree from Old Dominion University. Previously he was a financial representative with American General Financial Services in Virginia Beach, Va.

About Lathrop Gage:
A leading Midwest full-service law firm, Lathrop Gage L.C. has approximately 300 attorneys in 11 offices nationwide, from Los Angeles to New York. In 2009, Chambers USA ranked Lathrop Gage's corporate, environmental, intellectual property, litigation, real estate and labor and employment teams among the best in the Midwest. For more information, visit www.lathropgage.com.