

GPM Attorney Adam Nathe Named LCLD Fellow for 2016

March 2, 2016

MINNEAPOLIS (March 2, 2016) — The law firm of Gray Plant Mooty is pleased to announce that attorney Adam Nathe has been selected for the 2016 Fellows Program of the Leadership Council on Legal Diversity (LCLD), a national organization committed to creating a diverse legal profession.

Nathe, a principal of the firm, whose practice specializes in commercial financing transactions and corporate debt restructuring, joins a class of more than 200 attorneys from around the country who have been selected as LCLD Fellows for 2016.

According to LCLD President Robert J. Grey, Jr., the LCLD Fellows Program offers participants "an extraordinarily rich year of relationship-building, in-person training, peer-group projects, and extensive contact with LCLD's top leadership."

Founded in 2009, LCLD is a growing organization of more than 240 corporate chief legal officers and law firm managing partners. The organization has trained more than 800 mid-career attorneys since its inception.

Nathe, a graduate of the University of Wisconsin Law School and the University of St. Thomas, was previously named "Minnesota Minority Small Business Champion of the Year" by the U.S. Small Business Administration, and an Up & Coming Attorney by Minnesota Lawyer Magazine.

About Gray Plant Mooty

Gray Plant Mooty is recognized as one of the leading corporate law firms in Minnesota and one of the top franchise firms in the world. Our roots go back to 1866. Today, we are a 180-attorney, full-service firm with offices in Minneapolis and St. Cloud, Minn., Fargo, N.D., and Washington, D.C. Our attorneys and staff provide exceptional client service and value to our clients, and directly or with our global affiliations, we provide comprehensive legal services on a regional, national and global basis. Learn more at www.gpmlaw.com and www.gpmlaw150.com.