

Taryn Nash Named to Ingram's 20 in Their Twenties

October 16, 2020

Oct 16, 2020 - Lathrop GPM Associate Taryn A. Nash was recently selected to Ingram's 20 in Their Twenties 2020 list. The recognition identifies Nash as a young professional with promise, who demonstrates, "entrepreneurial qualities and thinking."

A Litigation & Dispute Resolution attorney in the firm's Kansas City, Missouri, office, Nash's practice focuses on complex commercial litigation, First Amendment, Open Records/Sunshine Law, nuisance claims and insurance recovery matters. Nash also serves on the firm's Recruiting Committee and on the Practice Group Integration Committee. In her service to the Integration Committee, which works to promote the positive integration of practice groups following the firm's Jan. 2020 combination, Nash helped develop an associate-wide integration survey which provided valuable insight and directives for progressing the firm in its work to unify associates and advance the firm's desire for an inclusive, diverse and progressive working environment.

In addition, Nash is a member of the Alumni Association's Board of Directors for her alma mater, the University of Missouri - Kansas City School of Law and serves as Co-Chair of the Ross T. Roberts Trial Academy Committee, an initiative of the Kansas City Metropolitan Bar Association's Young Lawyer's Section.
