

Lathrop GPM Represents viGlobal in Deal with Aderant

September 20, 2022

On August 19, 2022, Aderant, a global industry leader that provides business management software for law firms and other professional services organizations, closed a deal to acquire viGlobal for an undisclosed amount. viGlobal is a leading people management software company focused on serving the professional services market. viGlobal provides software to the majority of large law firms in the country, including Lathrop GPM.

In addition to being one of the many users of viGlobal software, Lathrop GPM represented viGlobal in the transaction. Led by Partner Mark Williamson, the team members included attorneys Alyssa Hirschfeld, Chelsey Buck and David Woger.

Andrew Talpash, president and CEO of viGlobal, commended the team, for its responsiveness and collaborative approach. "The team had excellent business judgement in guiding me through the negotiations and nuances of the process," said Talpash. "It was reassuring to have a trusted advisor like Lathrop GPM; their experience and insight were integral to this transaction."

"We could not be more pleased with the outcome of this deal," said Mark Williamson, partner chair of the firm's Corporate & Business Practice Group. "We were honored that viGlobal chose us to represent them in this deal and assist in bringing two software powerhouses together."

The Lathrop GPM Mergers & Acquisitions team represents buyers and sellers in myriad industries, including domestic and international public and private companies. Lathrop GPM uses a team-based approach to M&A work to comprehensively address all aspects of mergers, acquisitions, and divestitures, which can range from taxation and antitrust to employment and environmental law.
