

Lathrop Gage Welcomes New Health Care Attorney Chandler Carr

October 7, 2015

Overland Park, Kan. (Oct. 7, 2015) - Lathrop Gage announced today that Chandler E. Carr recently joined the firm's Overland Park office as an Associate in its Health Care practice.

Carr joins the firm from Ann & Robert H. Lurie Children's Hospital of Chicago, where he worked directly in the health care industry as a legal extern. In this position, Carr managed contracts and agreements, performed due diligence for an acquisition of a new facility, and researched and drafted compliance memorandums. In addition, Carr has experience outside of the legal industry, including sales and education.

"Chandler has great firsthand industry experience that will prove to be incredibly beneficial as he joins our health care team," said Andrew Ramirez, co-leader of the Health Care practice. "Understanding exactly what our clients are experiencing every day helps us give them the best possible legal counsel."

Carr obtained his juris doctor from Northwestern University School of Law and received his undergraduate degree in philosophy at Calvin College.
