Bryan Minier Appointed Partner-in-Charge of Chicago Office

Chicago (July 19, 2017) - Lathrop Gage announced today that Bryan Minier has been selected by the firm's Executive Committee to serve as Partner-in-Charge of the Chicago office.

"I am honored to lead our Chicago office, and look forward to building upon the trusted name of Lathrop Gage," said Minier. "I'm excited to help continue growing the Chicago office by recruiting new talent and enhancing our relationships with clients in the region."

Minier concentrates his practice on bankruptcy and creditors' rights, corporate reorganizations, and also advises clients on a variety of commercial litigation matters. He frequently counsels clients in cases related to chapter 11 reorganizations and chapter 7 liquidations, as well as a range of other matters.

Since 2009, Lathrop Gage's Chicago office has served the firm's clients regionally and across the country, with a focus on financial services, bankruptcy and creditors' rights, intellectual property, commercial litigation, and corporate law.
